The United States District Court

13 v.

14 Sean Carter

15 COMPLAINT

16 Defendant(s).

17 I met with Sean Carter in our home in 1978, a friend brought him over while I recorded the song
 18 Umbrella. He recorded his first time ever with me on the song.
 19 in 1982, I talked to him via a phone and he asked if he could use the song Once in a lifetime for an 20 artist.. I told him that he could. I also recorded Crazy in Love whom he was going to give to an 21 Artist. I had another song Me Myself and I and I recorded and videoed this song with another 22 high school friend Charles T Harris Jr. whom I had known since 7th grade.
 23 Later I went to Universal Music Group /geffen Records to check on my Songs and he was in the 24 office and before I could speak with him a woman came through screaming his name. Saying for 25 security to get his hands off of her. Her brother is a Police. Who is now in Prison named Peter
 26 McGuire for kidnapping. I left fearing for my safety.
 27 I later went to the Harry Fox Agency and uploaded songs to a Songfile which costed 100.00 at the 28 time. None of the songs I gave him in total four Me, Myself and I, Once in a Lifetime, Umbrella

1 have me as a Songwriter or an Artist.

2 All of them do list him and his wife.

3 I am to be given 50% songwriter royalties and 10% publishing Copyrights of each song on all the 4 Digital service providers
